Job Description

Job Grade: Management and Specialist Grade 7

Job Purpose

To plan, schedule and manage major IT projects to agreed requirements, delivering to timescales, budget, acceptance criteria, quality criteria and contractual commitments.

Job Duties

- To manage large and high-profile IT Projects taking responsibility for the successful completion of the programme of work. Establish and maintain the correct structures to control and monitor deliverables. Formally identify and schedule work, resolve issues, manage risk, report progress, ensure that objectives are met within agreed timescales and produce full and comprehensive documentation including comprehensive project, quality, and risk plans.
- To lead one or more project teams, including third party suppliers, developing and maintaining resource plans and monitoring resources to ensure that they are contributing effectively. Allocate work and responsibilities to members of the project team. Monitor and control team performance and the quality of work against plans, taking any necessary action to resolve issues.
- To be accountable for the financial control and management of all elements of the project and the delivery of the agreed financial targets. Agree estimated resource requirements and costs with senior management and maintain effective financial and project forecasting, planning and reporting. Monitor actual project performance and progress against the plans, taking any necessary action to correct variances in quality, time scales or cost.
- To liaise with management at the highest levels within the university, managing their expectations for projects. Co-ordinate relationships with and between key stakeholders, during the design, management and implementation of business change.
- To develop and manage defined communication channels and stakeholder groups. Promote products and services at a high level, both internally and externally.
- To manage the various stages of solutions development from project board meeting to handover for production, i.e. strategy, analysis, design, build, document, transition and handover. Manage the project from initial requirement, through the various stages of specification of requirements, specification of design, through to implementation and training that may be required.
- To manage any procurements exercises, including the preparation of the invitation to tender, technical, contractual and financial evaluation of the proposed solutions.
- To report, in a timely and comprehensive manner, issues which could significantly impact programme and project plans in order to facilitate issue resolution.

- To provide regular reports on programme and project plans and progress for relevant departmental and University committees.
- To mentor, coach and support other project managers within IT Services, particularly those with less experience in following structured project management methodologies.
- To support the Project Portfolio Manager in the implementation and optimisation of departmental project management processes and techniques.
- To undertake any other duties which may reasonably be required by the Project Portfolio Manager.
