Job Description

Job Grade

Administrative Services Grade 4

Job Purpose

To work within the School of Social Sciences and Humanities administrative support team to provide support for Postgraduate Taught Programmes and Undergraduate Programmes.

Job Duties

Programmes Administration

1. To be responsible for the preparation of all induction communications including mailings to freshers (including temporary visiting students) and the preparation of relevant handbooks.
2. To carry out general student administration using Co-Tutor, LEARN and LUSI databases to maintain and update student records in respect of module registrations, assessment, leave of absence, internal transfers etc., using an in-depth knowledge of IT systems.
3. To act as the first point of contact for all students, assisting with queries and providing information, and general advice and guidance, in a timely and effective manner. To work independently and use own initiative when dealing with unexpected student problems and emergencies, referring more complex problems to the appropriate Student Administration Manager.
4. To manage coursework submission, collation and return.
5. To be responsible for the administration associated with the monitoring of student attendance via the digital registers and updating student information on central systems.
6. In conjunction with colleagues, to assist with the planning, organisation and running of key events such as student induction programmes, student open/visit days and graduation events.
7. To be responsible for the administration of student feedback on modules in the School.
8. To assist in the preparation of documentation for Annual Programme Reviews, Quadrennial Reviews and accreditation visits.

9. To assist with the maintenance of information systems such as archives, student records, etc., ensuring compliance with University regulations and GDPR and ensuring the timely delivery of accurate information as and when required.
10. To provide general teaching-related administration for academics as required, such as uploading documents to LEARN and updating reading lists.
11. To assist with the collation and maintenance of risk assessment and ethical clearance documentation.
12. To assist with the preparation of examination papers, ensuring that papers are correctly formatted and moderated and submitted to the University's Student Office by the appropriate deadlines.
13. To be responsible for checking all claims associated with the payment of invigilators, prior to submission to the authorised signatory.
14. To be responsible for monitoring and processing Mitigating Circumstances (MC) claims submitted by students including recording the decisions of the MC Panels.
15. To assist the Student Administration Manager with Review and Programme Board administration including liaison with academic staff in respect of External Examiner comments and feedback.
16. Regular checking/housekeeping of LEARN to ensure that content is up to date and relevant for students.
17. To develop and maintain a strong working relationship with University colleagues and to liaise appropriately with Professional Services in order to carry out required roles and responsibilities.

Additional Needs Students

1. Liaise closely with the Disability Co-ordinators, School Wellbeing Adviser and Student Wellbeing and Inclusivity (SWAI) regarding students who have additional learning support needs, including for examinations and in-class tests.
2. To be responsible for liaising with additional needs students in respect of assessment arrangements and where required, liaising with Academic Registry and Module Leaders to ensure arrangements are made for students to take assessments/exams in an alternative venue.

Admissions

1. To assist with admissions processing, consulting where appropriate with Admissions Tutors and the University Admissions Office.
2. To be a main point of contact for admissions enquiries by telephone, email – particularly during the A level results week. To respond to enquiries, giving advice to applicants and their parents as appropriate.
3. In conjunction with academic colleagues as well as Marketing and Advancement, to assist with the organisation of open days, visit days and recruitment events. This includes the preparation of relevant publicity and paperwork associated with the events, and participation in the events as required.

General Administration

1. To respond to enquiries received in person, by telephone or email and take appropriate action. This will include dealing primarily with students and academic staff but will also include external organisations and parents.
2. To undertake general clerical duties.
3. To provide cover for other colleagues at busy times and in cases of absence, by undertaking such duties and responsibilities which are commensurate with the grade and nature of the post.
4. To ensure compliance with relevant University policies and procedures.

5. To undertake any training and development deemed appropriate for the position by the School Operations Manager and the relevant line manager.
6. Provide general administrative support, including committee servicing.

Points to Note

The purpose of this job description is to indicate the general level of duties and responsibility of the post. The detailed duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character or level of responsibility entailed.

Special Conditions

Support for open days may require some working outside of standard office hours (e.g. at the weekend). The administrator will therefore be required to work flexibly and will be given time off in lieu in respect of these out of hours commitments.

All staff have a statutory responsibility to take reasonable care of themselves, others and the environment and to prevent harm by their acts or omissions. All staff are therefore required to adhere to the University's Health, Safety and Environmental Policy & Procedures.

All staff should hold a duty and commitment to observing the University's Equality & Diversity policy and procedures at all times. Duties must be carried out in accordance with relevant Equality & Diversity legislation and University policies/procedures.

Successful completion of probation will be dependent on attendance at the University's mandatory courses which include Respecting Diversity and, where appropriate, Recruitment and Selection.

Organisational Responsibility

Reports to one of the Student Administration Managers.
