About Student Services

Student Services encompasses a wide range of the support and skills development opportunities available for students and graduates at Loughborough. This includes Academic Language Support, Careers Network, Student and Graduate Enterprise, Student Success, Wellbeing Support, Student Advice and Guidance, the Wardens' Service and Security. Student Services is at the heart of enabling the University's strategic ambition to provide all students with a life- shaping student experience and is engaged with almost all areas of academic and campus activity in support of this goal.

Academic Language Support Service

Year round, the Academic Language Support Service provides a range of academic literacy, English language and study skills support for home and international students from a diverse range of educational, linguistic and cultural backgrounds. During the summer months, the Academic Language Support Service runs a number of English for Academic Purposes programmes for pre-sessional students.

The Academic Language Support Service aims to help students achieve academic success and personal development by enabling them to:

- communicate effectively through clear and coherent articulation of their ideas;
- understand and critically engage with the ideas of others;
- understand academic expectations and audiences, and use appropriate academic language, adhering to academic conventions in the process; and
- realise their full potential at university and beyond.

Through a range of embedded and stand-alone courses, workshops and online support options, the Academic Language Support Service helps to equip students with skills, strategies, techniques, awareness and language to meet the demands of their academic programmes.

The Pre-Sessional Programmes

The Pre-sessional programmes are for international students who hold a degree offer from Loughborough University. These eleven and six week programmes are for students who have not quite met the English language level required for entry to university or who feel they need some practice in using their English before starting their main degree programme.

Job Description

Job Grade: Administrative Services Grade 3

Job Purpose: To provide effective delivery of the Pre-sessional Orientation for the duration of the pre-sessional programmes.

Job Duties

- To ensure that all pre-sessional students receive a warm welcome to the University and the UK and to provide practical and pastoral support as required throughout the programmes.

- Close liaison with the International Student Experience Coordinator, Academic Language Support Service Team, Admin Team, Campus Living staff and other relevant parties.
- Participating in a work rota which includes administration tasks within and on behalf of the Academic Language Support Service including activities, welcome events, student helpdesks and an emergency out of hours phone contact for students.
- To assist with early and late arrivals in accordance with Academic Language Support Service procedures.
- To ensure that information and resources are distributed to students in a timely way.
- To proactively engage with students to monitor their welfare and to raise any concerns which may arise with appropriate members of staff.
- To follow up requests from Academic Language Support Service staff to check on the welfare of individual students.
- To communicate any issues affecting pre-sessional students to the International Student Experience Coordinator in a timely manner.
- Coordinate groups of students moving between a variety of locations in an effective and timely manner.
- Attending regular meetings including all training and induction sessions.
- Helping the Academic Language Support Service with a range of practical and administrative duties as required.
- To undertake tasks supporting the assessment process and key events such as the pre-sessional registration and induction.
- To support fire drills and assist with the implementation of Hall rules and safety regulations.

Job objectives:

- Provide a positive and welcoming experience for the pre-sessional students.
- To adopt a proactive approach to student integration and welfare, delivering the orientation programme and signposting to support services as appropriate.
- To communicate effectively with key parties in order to deliver and ensure the smooth running of the pre-sessional orientation.
- To contribute fully as an effective member of the Student Support Team and work closely with the International Student Experience Coordinator and Academic Language Support Service team.
- To promote balance between the academic and social aspects of the pre-sessional programme.
- To encourage the use of English outside the classroom, while adhering to Academic Language Support Service guidelines and procedures.
- To provide practical, hands-on assistance with the delivery of all aspects of the pre-sessional programmes.
- To understand and adhere to University policies relating to areas such as health & safety and data protection.
- To comply with Academic Language Support Service policies and procedures including the code of conduct and confidentiality .

Terms and Conditions

Student Support Assistants must have permission to work in the UK full-time and be available for the full duration of their contracts. This role is suitable for current Loughborough University undergraduate students or recent graduates only.

These are demanding full-time roles which require a high degree of flexibility; it is essential that post holders are available to work during the daytime as well as evenings and weekends, according to the changing requirements of the work allocation rota.

Please note that due to the operational requirements of the role, annual leave is restricted. You will receive payment for annual leave not taken in your final salaries payment.

Due to the nature of the role, Student Support Assistants are required to reside in a University Hall arranged by Academic Language Support Service from Thursday 29 June to Saturday 23 September 2023 - this is non-negotiable. Accommodation will therefore be provided free of charge for this period. Self-catered accommodation is available until Sunday 24 September free of charge to allow SSAs to complete their duties on 23 September. You will also be required to undertake some tasks at Student Services at the Bridgeman building on campus as well as other duties both on and off campus. This post cannot be undertaken remotely, and Support Support Assistants are expected to be physically living and working on the Loughborough University campus.
