Job Purpose

The Timetabling Officer will be responsible for all timetabling and student module choice delivery for all students for their dedicated School(s).

Job Duties

1. The creation, management support and dissemination of the School(s) timetable.
2. Work in collaboration with other School timetablers to ensure shared modules are timetabled effectively, and with members of academic and administrative staff to deliver individual timetables.
3. Responsible for all room bookings requests from academic and support staff.
4. Detailed knowledge and understanding of the academic process and University systems, and their alignment with timetabling.
5. Analyse the timetable to identify issues and make recommendations to the Senior Timetable Officer.
6. Deliver and improve timetabling output. Responsible for the successful provision of high quality, consistent and comprehensive services to the School and their students.
7. Manage expectations of staff and students by confirming appropriate and realistic timetable solutions based on detailed requirement gathering.
8. Work in liaison with the Timetabling Manager to launch the online module choice application to students.
9. Responsible for the accuracy of data input into the module choice applications to field all student enquiries regarding the process.
10. Work with colleagues to ensure that annual programme and module update data is accurately reflected in both the timetabling and module choice systems.
11. Attend regular Timetabling Operations Group meetings as an active member and School representative and inter-School meetings to discuss timetable progress.
12. Ensure timely circulation of timetables to School staff and students, and respond to related enquiries throughout the year.
13. Compile, distribute and maintain student group lists within the timetabling system to facilitate student change requests and support the attendance monitoring process.
14. A flexible attitude to working hours as out of hours working may be required on occasion to enable the completion of the School timetables for start of each semester.
15. Plan, organise and prioritise own workloads and provide cover for other members of the central timetabling team. Using initiative to deal appropriately with changing priorities and situations.
16. Any other duties and responsibilities which are commensurate with the role and grading.

Points To Note

The purpose of this job description is to indicate the general level of duties and responsibility of the post. The detailed duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character or level of responsibility entailed.
