School/Department summary

About Academic Language Support Service (ALSS)

Year round, the Academic Language Support Service provides a range of academic literacy, English language and study skills support for both home and international students from a diverse range of educational, linguistic and cultural backgrounds at the Loughborough and London campuses. In addition, ALSS runs a series of intensive English for Academic Purposes pre-sessional programmes for international students.

ALSS aims to help students achieve academic success and personal development by enabling them to:

- communicate effectively through clear and coherent articulation of their ideas;
- understand and critically engage with the ideas of others;
- understand academic expectations and audiences, and use appropriate academic language, adhering to academic conventions in the process; and
- realise their full potential at university and beyond.

Through a range of embedded and stand-alone courses, workshops and online support options, ALSS helps to equip students with skills, strategies, techniques, awareness and language to meet the demands of their academic programmes.
