

Mental Health Adviser (Maternity Cover)

Job Ref: REQ240491

As part of the University's ongoing commitment to redeployment, please note that this vacancy may be withdrawn at any stage of the recruitment process if a suitable redeployee is identified.

School/Department summary

The Student Wellbeing and Inclusivity Team (SWAI) has a successful and well-established Mental Health Support Team, who support students with a variety of emotional and mental health difficulties. The Team, made up of Mental Health Advisers, provide assessments of practical support needs, regular meetings for students, and liaise with other University staff and/or external agencies. An opportunity has arisen for a new Mental Health Adviser as part of an expanding Team. This exciting opportunity, for an enthusiastic and suitably qualified or experienced person, involves the assessment and provision of practical support; it is not a counselling role. The Team is committed to providing a high standard of service which respects students' rights and promotes their wellbeing.

Job Description

Job Purpose

A Mental Health Adviser will:

- Assess and provide individual, academically-focused, practical support for students who have mental health difficulties.
- Respond to emerging issues through action or referral as appropriate, involving extensive liaison at times.
- Provide support in a way which is consistent with the principle of equality.
- Identify and provide innovative non-1:1 support for students with mental health difficulties in conjunction with other stakeholders.
- Contribute to the development of the Mental Health Support Team and services aimed at facilitating progression for students with established mental health problems.

Job Duties

- To receive referrals of students who experience mental health problems and assess and review their needs.
- To provide regular 1:1 support sessions, delivering focused interventions for individual students to facilitate participation on their course.
- To liaise with other agencies that could be used in conjunction with the support, maintaining good working relationships and role boundaries.
- To develop self-management strategies in collaboration with individual students.
- To provide feedback to the Mental Health Practice Lead on emerging issues relating to individual students.
- To respond to risk, complex or emerging issues and feedback to Mental Health Practice Lead.
- To prioritise and maintain a caseload of students.
- To identify and provide non-1:1 student support to students with mental health difficulties, with an emphasis on early intervention, social inclusion and mental health recovery frameworks.
- To liaise with the Mental Health Practice Lead, and other stakeholders, to ensure clear objectives are identified, discussed and reviewed with regards to non-1:1 support.
- To provide feedback to the Mental Health Practice Lead on emerging issues relating to non-1:1 work.
- To ensure an appropriate level of contact with students who are not actively studying (such as students who are absent due to mental ill health, prospective students, and returning students), to assist their return to/progression with study.

- To implement strategies and systems to facilitate the inclusion of students with mental health difficulties into the University.
- To promote positive attitudes and to people with mental health difficulties in all their work, with an emphasis on empowerment.
- To work in collaboration with other members of the Team to maintain the service provided to students.
- To contribute to the development of the service within the framework established by the Mental Health Practice Lead.
- To contribute to the development of best practice within the service.
- To maintain up-to-date knowledge of legislation, national and local policies and procedures in relation to mental health through, for example, membership of the University Mental Health Advisers Network.
- To engage in supervisory and line management processes and participate in any training identified as suitable to the post.
- To keep accurate records of work undertaken.
- To adhere to protocol with regard to departmental policies and procedures.
- To undertake other work as may be delegated by the Mental Health Practice Lead.
