

Loughborough Law

PROFESSOR

Job Ref: REQ241077

As part of the University's ongoing commitment to redeployment, please note that this vacancy may be withdrawn at any stage of the recruitment process if a suitable redeployee is identified.

We are establishing Loughborough Law and wish to recruit high calibre Professor(s) to be part of the School of Social Sciences and Humanities (SSH). It is expected that the successful candidate will be appointed as a Professor and, accordingly, will be able to demonstrate a substantial track record of high-quality teaching, sustained and continuing record of excellence which has contributed to the furtherance of knowledge in your discipline and is recognised in a well-established and high-profile international reputation. Evidence of significant academic leadership and a PhD or equivalent research experience are also essential.

Job Description

Job Grade

Research, Teaching and Enterprise Grade 9

Job Purpose

Collaborative Leadership for Strategic Excellence

To actively collaborate with senior academic staff, fostering a culture of partnership and shared vision to ensure the successful achievement of the ambitions outlined in the University's Strategy, Building Excellence. This involves aligning departmental priorities with institutional goals, driving innovation, and ensuring that resources and efforts are optimally directed towards long-term success and sustainability.

Strategic Development in Research, Teaching, and Enterprise

To develop and implement comprehensive strategies in research, teaching, and enterprise that ensures the continued vitality and relevance of the School or Loughborough Law. This includes identifying emerging opportunities, responding to global academic trends, and fostering interdisciplinary initiatives that enrich the department's portfolio. By setting high standards and cultivating a dynamic environment, the goal is to enhance the school's academic output, industry partnerships, and societal impact.

Personal Contribution and Global Impact

To lead by example by actively engaging in high-quality research, innovative teaching, and impactful enterprise activities. This personal involvement should contribute meaningfully to Loughborough Law's objectives while enhancing the School's international standing. By achieving excellence in their academic area, the individual will inspire colleagues and attract world-class students, researchers, and collaborators to further elevate the School's global reputation.

- To publish the outcomes of research in outlets of international standing.
- To attend and contribute to the organisation of major international conferences.
- To supervise postgraduate students at Masters and Doctoral levels.
- To initiate, lead and collaborate in research initiatives with colleagues both within the University and externally.
- To initiate, lead and collaborate in research initiatives with other HEIs and other relevant bodies.

Teaching

- To lead colleagues in the School in delivering an exceptional learning environment for students.
- To teach and inspire undergraduate and postgraduate students, and to conduct associated assessments.
- To provide academic and pastoral support to undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- To promote the use of a range of methods and techniques in teaching, learning and assessment.
- To engage in the evaluation and development of modules for which you have responsibility, in terms of content, delivery and assessment.
- To be responsible for the design and content of specific areas of teaching and learning within the School's undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.
- To lead colleagues in the continuous review and development of the School's taught programmes and the curriculum.

Enterprise

- To initiate and lead engagement with business, public and voluntary organisations through knowledge exchange activities such as student projects and placements, research collaboration, consultancy and specialist training.
- To create social, cultural and economic impacts from academic, especially research, activity.
- To secure external funding in support of these activities.
- To seek opportunities for the commercialisation of research and the formation of social enterprises.

Related Activities and Functions

- To appraise and advise staff on personal and career development plans.
- To work effectively with relevant administrative, technical and academic staff in the School and across the University.
- To carry out specific administrative roles and functions as may be reasonably required.
- To take part in and, on occasion, act as chair of one or more of the School's committees.
- To engage in training programmes in the University (e.g. through Staff Development) which are consistent with your needs and aspirations and those of the School.
- To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.
- To engage fully with the annual Performance and Development Review (PDR) process.
